

posed. The Mayor is favorable thereto, and will sign the bill as soon as presented. It will meet with the approbation of our citizens generally, thousands having signed petitions in favor, while scarcely half can be counted on the remonstrances.

THE GIRL CATHARINE SULLIVAN.—This girl has been provided for, a good place having been procured for her in a pious family in New-York. The location is not mentioned for obvious reasons. The Brooklyn Chief of Police has received many applications by letter and otherwise, and this will be considered by answer to all.

THE TARRYTOWN HABEAS CORPUS.

In the matter of the Petition of Sam'l. P. Paillard.

The Paillards' family question is now the care and custody of the State, who have taken up the morning and afternoon task as to the party upon whom the responsibility of the proof devolved. The Court decided that it must be assumed by the father, whose duty it should be to prove the wife's delinquency, to have been the child. Judge Parsons, however, held that it would be well to hold a hearing in order to avoid publicity.

Mr. Fullerton asked whether the defense would be allowed to make out a case against his client, Mr. Paillard, and the Court said that it would not pass on the question if it arose in the case, inasmuch as extra-judicial opinions were improper.

The suit with reference to publicity did not seem to meet with full assent, and both parties showed themselves anxious to conclude the hearing was set down for the third Monday in April.

Judge Judge Davies.
